CORVETTES ROCK THE BAY 2025

What a Sunday our big day turned out to be. As we all watched the hot weather forecast trend downwards during the week, it was with great relief that in the end, it turned out to be such a stunning day.

Once again, we were spoilt for help from so many great members that turned up early to help with the set up. Well done Team.

Right on cue, the Corvettes started to roll in. 101 Corvettes in total. Amazing.

The guys parking the cars started to sweat that we were going to run out of room.

The band "Heartbeat" fired up adding to the vibe of the day and we had great foot traffic from the public.

A special mention needs to be made to acknowledge the amazing effort of Maelyn and Joy with selling near on a million raffle tickets to raise money for Heartkids. Also a BIG "Job well done" to Shirelee and her team manning the Merchandise tent. A huge effort

Trophy time came and we certainly had some worthy winners.

Meet your Mates Alfresco dining on da green in Oakbank

Being one of the hottest months of the year and making plans for an outdoor event in February is always going to be tricky unless you head for the Adelaide Hills. Here, micro climates do exist amongst the shade of the trees where the grass is greener, and the beer is cold commonly known as the pub.

The Oakbank Steakhouse was an ideal location with its rear grassed area, shaded by oak trees and a bonus which included mini-Bocce court to mix things up a little.

We had a relatively small turnout out, but members who attended enjoyed this social outing with some great company, quality food together with a few drinks plus a couple of rounds of Bocce in the courtyard that resembled Tai Chi classic movements as shown in photos.

We had some very creative Bocce players on the day who had talents they weren't aware of..... Bob, plus others who were creating their own rules as they played using the back, side and the top of the boards to enhance their competitive edge..... hey Stuart!!!

This wasn't the case being shown by the ladies, Noreen and Karen who were the shining stars of fair play and winners for the evening.

Regardless of the warm weather which mellowed as the sun went down it turned out to be a lovely arvo/evening with friends together with a few good laughs enjoyed by those who attended that made the event.
